"Using drums, keyboards, guitars, and various other percussion instruments, John Emanuele and Rich Cupolo weave richly textured melodies in between cascades of drums, synths, and sparse organ notes, creating a sound that puts them on par with bands like The Album Leaf or Explosions in the Sky. Whether a track contains a lush, ambient-interlude feel or a sweeping explosion of chords, emotion runs high..."

- Jennifer Marston, XLR8R

"Brilliantly, tracks often blend into each other, leaving no space for afterthought or pause...works of rare talent and ingenuity, taking elements from electronica and post-rock and making the pairing of the two seem somehow new and vital."

- Peter Brennan, The Silent Ballet
